

Information & Overview

Culture for Kids & Teens

Culture for Kids & Teens is designed to accompany our culture course, giving children and parents the same language and understanding of core concepts, encouraging all members of the family to adapt well to a new community. Our desire is that parents fully engage with their children through each segment of the course and that the children fully engage with parents in the field trips that occur throughout culture course.

Objectives

- Being comfortable engaging with native speakers
- Act in a culturally appropriate way
- Become self-directed in language and culture learning
- Embrace growth and change because of new culture
- Establish methods of managing feelings
- Learn the importance of learning language and culture together
- Have a biblical understanding of language and culture
